

WORKSHOP

BEYOND BIOLOGY: STEM CELLS IN PHILOSOPHY, THEOLOGY, ETHICS AND ECONOMY

MARCH, 21-22, CONGRESS CENTRE THERMANA PARK, LAŠKO, SLOVENIA

Contacts: Loriano Ballarin (loriano.ballarin@unipd.it), Buki Rinkevich (buki@ocean.org.il), Damjana Drobne (damjana.drobne@bf.uni-lj.si)

PROGRAM

March, 21, 2022

8:50-9:00

Damjana Drobne (University of Ljubljana, Slovenia) - Welcome notes

9:00-9:15

Baruch Rinkevich (National Institute of Oceanography, Haifa, Israel) - Introduction

9:15- 10:00

Lucie Laplane (University of Paris I) - Stem Cells: between philosophy and biology

10:00- 10:45

Javier Suarez Diaz (Jagiellonian University, Krakow, Poland) - A dispositionalist account of stem cells: how to think of stem cells by using the metaphysics of dispositions

Coffee break

10:45- 11:15

Katrien Devolder (University of Oxford, UK) - The ethics of human embryonic stem cell research

11:15-12:00

Gil Siegal (Kiryat Ono College, Israel) - Making decisions about stem cell research - Does it really matter?

12:00-12:45

Lunch

12:45- 14:15

Anna Smajdor (University of Oslo, Norway) - Beyond moral status: reification and stem cell research

14:15-15:00

Iñigo de Miguel Beriain (University of the Basque Country, Bilbao, Spain) - Does somatic cell nuclear transfer create embryos? A conceptual analysis

15:00-15:45

Coffee break

15:45-16:15

Melinda Fagan (University of Utah, Salt Lake City, USA) - Is diversity a problem? Philosophy, stem cells, and making sense of variation

16:15-17:00

March, 22, 2022

9:00-9:15

Loriano Ballarin (University of Padova, Italy) - Introduction

9:15- 10: 15

Lorenzo Beltrame (University of Trento, Italy) - Circuits and institutions. Lessons from the bioeconomies of stem cell circulations

10:15- 11:15

Avraham Steinberg (Shaare Zedek Medical Center, Jerusalem, Israel) - Stem cells in Judaism

11:15-11:45

Coffee break

11:45-12:45

Ahmet Karakaya (University of Exeter, UK)- The ethics of embryonic stem cell research in Turkey: exploring the moral reasoning of Muslim scholars

Lunch

12:45-14:15

Oshrat Ben-Hamo (National Institute of Oceanography, Haifa, Israel) - Stem cells in art and sciart

14:15- 15:00

Andrea Vicini (Boston College, Chestnut Hill, USA) - Stem cell research: christian ethical contribution

15:00-16:00

Coffee break

16:00-16:30

Damjana Drobne (University of Ljubljana, Slovenia) - Round table discussion

16:30- 17:30

Link zoom: <https://unipd.zoom.us/j/87185451938>